

UNDES Student Summer Institute

10th-14th August, 2013

Zengcheng, Guangzhou

Theme: Ecological Civilization & Sustainable Development

Target Audience: Local and International School Secondary students (S1-S6), teachers and principals

Formation of groups: 8 (include 1-2 teachers)

Accommodation: Utahloy International School Zengcheng Student Hostel

Fee : HK$1,600 per person (5 days 4 nights)

Student Project

Theme: Ecological Civilization & Sustainable Development

Presentation Format: 15 mins presentation, 10 mins Q&A session

Language: English and Putonghua

Title of project by 28 June 2013

A more detailed description by 30 July 2013 (no more than 200 words)

Personal Reflection by 23 August 2013(no more than 500 words)

Field Trip

Students choose either Route 1 or 2

Route 1: Baishu Village waterfall Hike & Boat tours at Lake Island

Route 2: Guangzhou Shamian Island - medicine market & Cycle along Zengcheng river to the beach, ancient pagodas and rural villages

Suggested topics

Human Civilization and Sustainable Community

Ecological Civilization and New Rural Construction

Climate Change and Energy Conservation

Hong Kong/Guangzhou Ecotourism Plan

Conservation of endangered wild animals

(Self-created topic)

Itinerary

Pre-trip training workshop – 2 Aug (half day)

Summer Institute (10 Aug – 14 Aug)

Day 1

- Ice breaking and Networking exercise
- Preparation workshop for student presentation

Day 2

- Keynote speech
- Student Project Presentation
- BBQ Night/Pool Side party

Day 3

- Field Trip (Students can choose among the planned four)

Day 4

- Factory visit
- Ho Hsien-Ku Scenic Area
- Leadership and team building activities
- Performance Rehearsal
- Cultural Evening Performance

Day 5

- Student Project Presentation
- Award Presentation

Post trip sharing session - Aug

Remarks: The organizer reserves the rights to change the above itinerary.